Description

A pair of burgundy leather armchairs featuring sophisticated capitonné stitching, typical of classic 20th-century furniture. The enveloping backrest culminates in elegant curls, echoed in the armrests, lending the chairs a harmonious and inviting look. The removable cushions offer practicality, while the black lacquered wooden legs add a refined contrast to the overall design. These Italian-made armchairs blend easily into both classic and modern settings, thanks to their stylistic versatility and the quality of the materials used.Product condition:This product requires restoration and re-polishing due to its age and wear. We strive to present the actual condition of the furniture as completely as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the
