setting--perhaps theCôte d'Azur or an idealized scene from Italy. On the left, athird female figure stands on a rock, appearing toengage in conversation with the others, lending the composition an atmosphereof legend or neoclassical pastoral.The brushwork is supple and precise; the variations in the sky andwater are rendered with delicacy, and both the skin tones andthe drapery are depicted with great finesse, reflecting themastery of an artist trained in academic traditions. The sky,streaked with luminous, shifting clouds, evokes the Romanticinfluence of the French landscape school.Thiswork stands out not only for the quality of its execution butalso for its implicit narrative, typical of 19th-centuryhistorical or mythological compositions, in which nature serves asthe backdrop for a humanized and idealized narrative.Thecondition is very good, and the period frameharmoniously complements the piece.This seascape is a beautiful example of19th-century Romantic painting, blending landscape and figures in alyrical composition that invites the viewer to escape. It will appeal tolovers of classical art, landscape painting, and allegoricalscenes.PRICE:1,200 euros
