Description

An elegant and impressive set of Louis-Philippe-style furniture, of Genoese origin and dating from the period between 1860 and 1870.The console table, complete with its period mirror cabinet featuring the original mirror, forms a single, refined period ensemble. Crafted entirely of finely carved wood, it features rich floral and foliage motifs, embellished with pure gold leaf gilding.The piece retains its extraordinary original charm, preserving its period finishes and characteristics overall. The console's top is crowned by an elegant original gray marble slab, perfectly harmonizing with the decorative richness of the structure.The large mirror, an integral part of the ensemble, is also finely carved and gilded and retains its original, period mirror--a feature of particular interest that helps
