Star-shaped Decorative Tile Made Of Silica-based Ceramic, Iran, Kashan, 13th Century

1 500 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Length : 20,5 cm

Width : 20,5 cm

Description

Octagonal star-shaped siliceous ceramic wall tile with blue and turquoise decoration featuring a large lotus flower in the center, set within an octagonal star on a white opaque glaze and a brown metallic lustre background, surrounded by foliage, with blue dots at the tips. Border of Naskh inscriptions (the oldest calligraphic styles of the Arabic alphabet) in lustre on a white background. Blue border line. Iran, Kashan, 13th century. Dimensions: 20.5 x 20.5 cm. Three tips have been restored.

Dealer

JM BEALU & FILS
Old ceramics
Tel : 01 45 48 46 53

3 rue du Bac
Paris 75007