Description

An elegant, 19th-century-style stemmed glass made of cut crystal, adorned with gilded metal mounts. It is distinguished by its rich diamond-point cut on the lower part of the bowl, its foot with a radiating design, and its elegant gilded mounts, adorned with delicate decorative friezes. The piece as a whole offers a beautiful balance between the transparency of the crystal and the brilliance of the gilding.Dimensions: Diameter 21 cm - Height 15 cm.
