Description

An interesting collection of twelve drawings and portrait studies in pastel and charcoal by Aubertin. He was likely an artist from the Lorraine region.A collection of compositions depicting mainly portraits of children, young women, and men, with various expressions and poses.These works reflect an academic exploration of portraiture and the study of the live model.Some sheets display a polished finish, while others retain the character of preparatory studies.A beautiful, cohesive collection from a single studio archive, preserved on paper.12 drawingsDimensions: approximately 33 × 50 cmEUR500 for the lot; individual pieces EUR70: please contact me.Enovo Mondial
