Description

Antique 19th-century chest of drawers, made of reddish-brown wood, in the Empire style.A piece of furniture with an elegant architectural design, characterized by a substantial structure with turned and ebonized side columns that frame the drawer front. The arrangement of the drawers--with two side-by-side upper drawers and three large drawers below--is embellished with circular metal knobs. A piece with a bold character and balanced proportions, embodying 19th-century neoclassical taste.
