Description

Pair of oil-on-canvas paintings, each set in a finely crafted ebonized and gilded wooden frame. The works depict evocative lakeside landscapes, reminiscent of the Venetian lagoon, featuring human figures and boats, all set within a natural environment defined by trees, a waterfall, and small, perched structures. These paintings showcase the artist's refined stylistic execution and meticulous attention to detail, imbuing any space with a timeless charm and an air of elegance. Venetian craftsmanship, Louis XVI period, late 18th century.
