Description

An elegant pair of half-moon side tables in walnut burl, 18th-century Italian craftsmanship of Tuscan origin.These console tables feature a beautiful semicircular top that highlights the rich grain and warm tones of the walnut burl, creating an elegant interplay of natural patterns. They rest on a slender base with straight, slightly tapered legs, ending in small wooden feet. The understated molding, which follows the curve of the tops, emphasizes the harmony of the proportions and the delicacy of their silhouette. Their clean lines, characteristic of the neoclassical style of the second half of the 18th century, reflect the elegance and simplicity of Tuscan furniture from that period. Their half-moon shape allows them to be placed separately against a wall or joined together to
