Mirror And Console Table Made Of Seashells

4 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Coral

Description

An original decorative set consisting of a mirror and its matching console table, entirely adorned with natural seashells, in the style of Thomas Boog's designs.The rectangular mirror features a frame richly decorated with a multitude of seashells of various shapes and sizes, arranged in a mosaic pattern. Scallop shells, small seashells, and pearlescent elements come together to create a particularly lavish design, evoking the marine world and the spirit of cabinets of curiosities.The upper section is crowned by a large sculptural seashell, accompanied by red tendrils reminiscent of coral, adding a touch of color and whimsy to the ensemble.The matching wall console features a marble-effect stone top in shades of ochre and yellow, resting on a structure entirely covered with seashells. Its lower section is adorned with

Dealer

La boutique de Sophie - SCD Antiquités
Italian and French chandeliers, decorative charming antiques
Mobile : 0698836404

110, rue des Rosiers. Stand 1. Allée 3.
Saint-Ouen 93400

an abundant arrangement of scallop shells and various other seashells, extending into a tapered central leg. A unique and particularly decorative piece, blending rocaille style, marine inspiration, and contemporary whimsy.Mirror:Width: 41 cmHeight: 89 cm Console: Width: 81 cmHeight: 71 cm Depth: 26 cm