Anoman Yaouré Mask, Ivory Coast

650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

An interesting Yaouré mask called Anoman, featuring a bird perched above it; a funeral mask.It features typical Yaouré characteristics, including the headdress divided into three arcs on the forehead, the pouting mouth, and the serrated edge (at the level of the beard); two copper plates adorn the cheeks. It has a beautiful, slightly oily brown patina. In good condition; height 34 cm. The attachment holes are very irregular and contain remnants of fibers used to secure the headdress. This mask is antique and has been used in dance.
