Description

Beautiful invitation cards from 4Z'ARTS, two of which still have their detachable coupons. A legendary costume party organized by students at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris from 1892 to 1966 at the Salle Wagram. "4Z'ARTS" referred to the four traditional disciplines taught at the Paris School of Fine Arts: architecture, printmaking, painting, and sculpture. Two of the cards feature the theme "Babylon"--a graphic depiction of a warrior and a mythological figure in the Art Deco style--and a second card depicts the "Sack of Bukhara" by Genghis Khan, created by the artist Chalumeau and published by the Laloux studio. Lemaresquier. The third: on an Asian theme evoking Buddhist or Khmer art. All in very good condition! (One or two small perforations.) As a set, visually very decorative!
