Description

A superb and elegant 19th-century walnut desk, also known as a Davenport. It rests on turned legs and features four drawers on each side. The upper section includes a slanted writing surface covered in olive-green leather, beneath which is a niche with drawers. Above this, a small box serving as a pen holder provides a place to store pens and pencils. The entire piece is covered in walnut veneer, adorned with marquetry featuring scrollwork and interlaced cicomore patterns. High-quality craftsmanship; original and in perfect condition.
