Description

A rare fireplace screen made of solid walnut, molded and carved. This piece stands out for the remarkable fluidity of its lines and the virtuosity of its carving. The upper crossbar and the openwork pediment feature rich high-relief carvings of clematis motifs, with intertwined stems brimming with botanical vitality. The curved side panels terminate in a curved base supported by four legs. A central panel of great rarity:The frame houses a sumptuous textile panel adorned with Japanese-inspired silk embroidery depicting an Imperial Dragon soaring through swirling clouds. Crafted with silk and cannetille threads featuring golden and bronze highlights on a gray-blue jacquard background. Beautiful waxed finish. Date: 1900-1910.
