Description

A rare and spectacular cabinet with a dynamic design, crafted from solid beech with molded and ribbed detailing, featuring two large solid doors with double panels on the front. It is crowned by an open niche-like cornice forming an upper gallery, framed by curved side ears and supported by openwork consoles with whip-like lines. The entire piece rests on straight legs with a scalloped lower crossbar. The front features an exceptional continuous panel of marquetry made from carefully selected native and precious woods (walnut, curly maple, ash, ebony, rosewood). The sides are paneled with rustic ash veneer. (Tamo) Upper panel: Beneath cascading garlands of flowering wisteria, the scene depicts a vast coastal landscape enlivened by two sailing boats--one steered by a sailor, the other sailing
