Description

A rare and elegant "Guadeloupe" wall sconce by Maison Charles, signed by Charles, dating from the 1970s.This remarkable decorative creation stands out for its sculptural composition of five large gilded metal leaves--an uncommon design that is particularly sought after for its aesthetic appeal and decorative presence.The leaves, arranged asymmetrically and harmoniously layered, feature superb chiseling and relief work, delicately reproducing the veins and natural irregularities of foliage.The richness of the textures, combined with the warm hues of the gilding, attests to exceptionally meticulous craftsmanship.The indirect lighting, discreetly concealed behind the leaves, diffuses a soft, enveloping light, creating magnificent plays of shadows and reflections that highlight the
