Description

A renowned physician in Nantes, it was not until 1985 that the public discovered his great talent as an artist, during his first exhibition, "Around Gauguin in Pont-Aven." The Pont-Aven Museum unveiled his works, which he had created in secret for 40 years.Inspired by Paul Gauguin and Matisse, and influenced by the Pont-Aven school, artistic expression became a second life for Jules Paressant. In 1990, the Nantes Museum of Fine Arts and the Château des Ducs de Bretagne paid tribute to him.Large oil on panel, signed with the artist's monogram and dated 1977 in the lower right corner, countersigned and titled on the reverse.
