Description

Signed wooden sculpture by French artist Aldo Sperber. The sculpture has a base bearing the artist's signature.After studying at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris, Aldo Sperber became a professional photographer in 2001 and has worked for the press and various institutions. He is influenced by literature and cinema, as well as by his extensive travels around the world. Serving as writer, director, and stylist in the offbeat world of his photographs, he specializes in everyday moments gone awry and humorously illustrates the fragility of the moment.
