Description

High-backed chairs featuring trapezoidal frames upholstered in leather, as are the seat cushions. The legs are saber-shaped at the back and straight with beveled edges at the front.These dining chairs boast a beautiful silhouette and good comfort, and are of excellent craftsmanship. The frames are covered in petrol blue leather that has faded slightly in the sun; they are in good condition despite some signs of wear.A "303" mark is stamped into the wood of the armrests; this corresponds to a model number from the cabinetmaking firm, which has yet to be identified.Very good conditionCirca 1930 Height 90 cm - seat height 45 cm - seat width 38 to 48 cm at the front - depth 40 cm
