Civilian Outfit: Coat, Vest, And Pants, Consulat.

1 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

CIVILIAN OUTFIT: COAT, VEST, AND TROUSERS, Consulat. 32929Made of sea-green silk. Jacket fastens straight down the front with three buttonholes at the top. It is trimmed with ten wooden buttons covered in water-green silk. Straight collar, 4.5 cm high. Sleeves with straight cuffs trimmed with three buttons. Two buttons at the waist. Horizontal flap pockets on the hips with three buttons underneath. Fully lined with silk and beige canvas.Fairly good condition; shows wear, some minor damage, and some sun-faded areas; one button is missing from one of the sleeves.Waistcoat fastening straight down the front with ten buttons in buttonholes. Horizontal side pockets with flaps, each secured by three buttons underneath. Ivory silk lining; white wool back.In fairly good condition; one

Dealer

Bertrand Malvaux
Expert agréé par la CNES Chambre Nationale des Experts Spécialisés
Tel : 02 40 73 36 00
Mobile : 06 07 75 74 63

22 rue Crébillon
Nantes 44000

button is missing at the front; stains and sweat marks.Bridge-style breeches fastening with five buttons at the top; at the fly, they fasten with two buttons (one used for the bridge section). At the front waist, two small horizontal side pockets, each with a button. At the waist, on each side, a coat button. Back fastens with a martingale featuring an iron buckle. Bottoms of the legs adjust with five buttonholes and a tab. The front panel is lined with brown canvas; the breeches are fully lined with ivory canvas.In fairly good condition, with signs of wear, a few tears and repairs--particularly on the legs and in the crotch--and some stains.