Description

A magnificent and imposing two-section sideboard made of solid oak, an authentic Louis XV-era piece dating from the 18th century.This beautiful antique piece immediately captivates with its generous proportions, the elegance of its flowing lines, and the richness of its woodworking.Made entirely of oak, it features a beautiful, richly molded front, embellished with delicate carvings and numerous decorative details characteristic of the Louis XV style.The flowing cornice, the doors with scalloped panels, the carved crossbars, and the curved legs are all testaments to remarkable period cabinetmaking.The care taken in its construction is evident even in the interior details: the backs of the doors are also carved and molded, a particularly interesting detail that underscores the
