Description

Heavy 20th-century farmhouse table, 1950-70 It's from the 20th century; everything is solid wood, including the tabletop. It's pine...The tabletop can be removed using the large screws underneath. The legs as well; filling in a gap in the wood at the top of the leg would be best. A wood-borer or beetles have been at it. The finish could also be refinished to restore the patina or sanded down!
