Description

An elegant Italian wall sconce attributed to the Banci company, dating from the 1940s-1950s.It features a slender gilded iron frame, decorated with scrolls, foliage, and flowers, embellished with molded glass elements and garlands of clear beads. The sconce has five light arms arranged on several levels around a botanical composition with sinuous stems, punctuated by flowers with faceted glass centers. Two decorative glass elements, shaped like sculpted vases, add rhythm to the composition.
