Eternelle Ring With Diamonds

1 300 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Description

The ring has always been a symbol of eternity and infinity, due to its circular shape and the absence of a break in its continuity.From antiquity to the present day, however, people have learned to set precious stones on rings--which were once simply bands--and to incorporate broken lines into their designs that visually interrupt their continuity. One particular type of ring, however, has fully preserved this characteristic--indeed, it is enhanced by the inclusion of precious stones set seamlessly, so that no beginning or end is visible and every part of the ring is exactly the same as every other. These rings are usually called "eternity" rings and have naturally become a symbol of the promise of eternal love, especially when the stones are diamonds. The white gold setting of this ring is so

Dealer

Pupeide Antichità
Bijoux anciens
Mobile : +39 3473592931

via Marconi 43
San Giovanni in Persiceto 40017

light that the nineteen brilliant-cut diamonds seem to flow seamlessly along the wearer's finger; the size is 16, and of course, it cannot be resized.