Description

Elegant pair of bronze vases, crafted using the lost-wax casting technique and featuring a refined combination of burnished and gilded finishes. Each vase rests on a rectangular podium base, adorned with festoons and geometric motifs. The vases themselves--in both their form and ornamentation--draw inspiration from classical antiquity, lending an air of sophisticated grace. Notable details include handles shaped as human protomes, as well as decorative scenes depicting combat, deities, and musicians playing the harp. Originally intended as flower vases, this pair exudes exceptional taste and elegance, capable of enriching any interior with a touch of classic
