Description

A magnificent and now rare, large artist's mannequin carved from softwood, likely from Italy.It measures approximately 85 cm. The feet, head, and hands are finely carved. It shows signs of use, with some wear on three fingers and the nose. However, all the joints are in very good condition, and everything has been secured with thin wooden pegs.This is a piece that, in addition to serving a functional purpose, possesses exceptional decorative value.SUPERB!!
