Description

A charming 18th-century side table with a lamp holder, also known as a torch holder.Its oak tabletop, with its undulating outline, rests on a walnut base that alternates between turned and faceted sections. This woodwork adds rhythm to its slender silhouette, supported by a tripod base.The combination of walnut and oak contributes to the character of this antique piece, whose design is based on simple lines and careful attention to proportions.Designed to hold a torch or a candlestick, this candleholder also serves as a small display stand for a small work of art.Any imperfections or repairs will be specified following an inspection of the piece.Height: 98 cm.We deliver and ship worldwide.
