18th-century Imari Porcelain Plate From Japan

390 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 21 cm

Description

Porcelain plate decorated in blue, red, and gold with a basket of flowers in the center and floral cartouches on the rim; traces of burn marks.Imari porcelain has been produced in Arita and exported through the port of Imari in Japan since the 17th century. The characteristic color palette consists of: a deep cobalt blue underglaze, an iron red (vermilion), and gold highlights. Traditional motifs: These include chrysanthemums, peonies, phoenixes, landscapes, and scenes from the Japanese court.

Dealer

Galerie Paola Lumbroso
The Artist Ceramic 20th and 21th centuries.
Mobile : 06 07 22 80 72

Paris 75016