Description

A beautiful naturalistic illustration depicting an elegant white spoonbill, a bird notable for its long, characteristic spoon-shapedbeak, white plumage, and long, dark legs. The bird is depicted in its natural habitat, at the water's edge, in a graceful pose as it forages for food.
This depiction highlights the finesse of the drawing and the details of the plumage, in a delicate composition with soft, natural tones.
This engraving is presented in a beautiful 19th-century dark-stained wooden frame, adorned with a wide, light-colored mat and a gilded bevel that harmoniously highlights the subject. A charming decorative piece for a distinctive interior, a library, an office, or a cabinet of curiosities.- Exterior frame dimensions: 80 x 68 cm- Frame molding width: 8 cm.
