Description

19th-century double-sided quilt made with block printing: one side features floral motifs with colors that are still fresh and vibrant, and the other is a solid beige-yellow cotton fabric that has faded slightly.The piece is in good condition considering its age, but there are repair marks on two of the edges caused by the heat of the iron (see photos), and some faint, old mold spots are barely visible on one edge.A beautiful decorative piece that can still be used.Dimensions: 1.60 m x 1.50 m - 1.410 kg.The blanket has been hand-washed and sun-dried.
