Description

An elegant vintage Art Deco navette ring (1920s-1930s), crafted in 950/°° platinum, captivating for the geometric design of its setting and the striking contrast of its stones.The elongated, diamond-shaped bezel with beveled edges is centered with a beautiful oval sapphire of an intense midnight blue, delicately set in a closed setting. This central motif is framed by four radiating rows of custom-cut, calibrated sapphires, giving the piece a perfectly symmetrical structure.The openwork compartments thus formed are generously paved with old-cut and rose-cut diamonds in a graduated arrangement, particularly highlighting two larger diamonds at the northern and southern ends of the navette. All the settings are accentuated by fine millegrain work adorning each edge.The
