Description

A charming vintage Pompadour ring crafted in 750/°° (18 KT) rose gold and white gold, captivating for the harmony of its proportions and the poetic interplay of its colors.The oval setting features a beautiful white opal cut into a domed cabochon, delicately held in place by a closed-prong setting in white gold. The stone reveals soft iridescent reflections in shades of aqua green, pink, and pearlescent, enhanced by a generous setting of twelve old-cut and rose-cut diamonds arranged in a festoon pattern.The openwork band features delicate cutouts in the shape of hearts and arches that lighten the setting and allow light to flow beneath the stones. The understated, polished rose gold band supports the setting with balance, offering a warm contrast to the white brilliance of the setting.When worn, this
