Description

A timeless Pompadour ring crafted in 750/°° (18 KT) yellow gold, captivating for the vivid color of its center stone and the classic balance of its setting.The oval setting features a beautiful faceted emerald with a deep, velvety green hue, delicately held in place by four yellow gold prongs. It is enhanced by a radiant halo of twelve brilliant-cut diamonds, set with claws in a gentle corolla shape to accentuate their brilliance.The openwork gallery, crafted in a basket setting with curved gold wires, lightens the volume beneath the setting while allowing light to flow freely through the stones. The polished yellow gold band elegantly splits at the shoulders to support the entire piece with finesse and stability.When worn, this iconic creation of traditional jewelry adorns the hand with brilliance and distinction,
