Description

:Antique Dutch Marquetry Side Chair with Floral and Bird InlayStunning antique Dutch-style side chair (Queen Anne style, 19th century), finely inlaid with foliate scrolls, flowers, and birds in light and stained woods against a blonde veneer ground. Backrest tall, open-work backrest with a shaped crest rail. The wide central vase-shaped splat features delicate marquetry depicting an urn with handles overflowing with flowering stems and a bird in flight. The back of the chair is finished in natural varnished wood, showcasing the wood grain. Serpentine trapezoidal drop-in seat, upholstered in a woven geometric chevron fabric (flame stitch / Hungarian point style) in sage green, slate blue, and off-white tones. Scalloped seat rail fully inlaid with foliage and flowers. It rests at the front on two cabriole legs
