Empire-style Mantelpiece In Veined Marble And Gilded Bronze - Circa 1890-1900

1 350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marble

Width : pendule 28 cm, cassolettes 11 cm

Height : pendule 47 cm, cassolettes 36.5 cm

Depth : pendule 13 cm, cassolettes 10.5 cm

Description

An elegant Empire-style mantelpiece from the late 19th century, circa 1890-1900, featuring a portico clock and a pair of matching side tables.The clock features a columnar structure made of white marble richly veined with gray, black, and pink, supporting a stepped entablature topped by a gilded bronze eagle with outstretched wings. Four small foliage ornaments complete this composition.The Paris-made movement, with two winding holes, is housed in a cylindrical gilded metal case, adorned with an enameled dial featuring Roman numerals and a radiating guilloché center. The lower section is embellished with a sun motif in gilded bronze.The clock rests on an architecturally styled marble base, enriched with gilded bronze appliqués.It is accompanied by two veined marble bowls with gilded bronze

Dealer

Le Grenier d'Augustine
Free delivery once a month for Paris
Tel : 06 76 95 92 10
Mobile : www.legrenierdaugustine.com
Fax : contact@legrenierdaugustine.com

2 rue Fourie
Limoges 87000

mounts, featuring remarkable handles in the shape of stylized swan heads and lids topped with foliage motifs.A decorative ensemble characteristic of the late 19th-century taste for First Empire-style creations.Dated circa 1890-1900.The movement runs for a few minutes then stops; it will need to be wound and restarted.Shipping by carrier: 50 euros within France, 100 euros within the EU, and 300 euros to the rest of the world.