PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Rare 18th-century Hungarian Saber -- Ebony, Silver, And A Richly Engraved Blade

5 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

A rare 18th-century Hungarian cutlass, with an atypical total length of 65 cm, notable for its rich ornamentation and elegant hilt.A superb hilt made of carved ebony, adorned on its various sides with delicate silver inlays featuring floral motifs and stylized scrollwork.Elegant guard with curved silver quillons, connected to the pommel by a finely braided silver chain.The slightly curved blade features exceptional engraved decoration depicting Cossack horsemen, a Bohemian woman, dragoons, an eagle, and various animals, set amid abundant arabesques and plant motifs.Its upper section is embellished with a substantial finely chiseled silver inlay, adorned with scrollwork and animal motifs, featuring four oval openings through which the steel is visible.An inscription that reads "OROSIO" appears in an

Dealer

Collection
Rare & Unusual Objects
Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000

oval cartouche near the heel of the blade.A prestigious weapon with Hungarian and Eastern influences, distinguished by its unusual proportions and the remarkable finesse of its decoration.In very good overall condition, with a beautiful antique patina and a sharp blade.Origin: Hungary, 18th centuryTotal length: 65 cm.