Description

Deliciously English, here is a chrome-plated metal teacup with a gold-plated interior. It collapses into three sections. Remarkably well-crafted, with a small handle that folds inward to become very compact, allowing the cup to nestle snugly in its stitched leather case. You can take it with you on the go to avoid finding yourself in an absolutely "shocking" situation without a cup at the fateful hour of five o'clock.Shipping available in France and internationally; contact me for details
