Description

Almanach des Muses for the years 1777 and 1782, published in Paris by Delalain, with a glossy green full-leather binding; the interior is well-preserved, fresh, and clean.The significance of these two poetic almanacs, which were extremely popular in the late 18th century, lies in the fact that they come from the library of the Prince of Talleyrand-Périgord at the Château de Valençay and bear his bookplate (from the estate sale of 1899).
