Description

Description :This large SIA Collection decorative vase is crafted in ivory-glazed ceramic and takes the form of a Neoclassical-inspired urn. Its rounded body rises to a gently concave neck that flares into a broad opening with a rounded rim. Two sweeping strap handles curve from just below the rim to the sides of the body, giving the vase an overall width of more than 15 inches. A molded ring marks the transition from the body to the circular pedestal foot, which flares outward at the base.The glossy ivory glaze covers both the exterior and the interior. The plain finish draws attention to the curves of the body and the open loops of the handles. At over 14 inches tall, the vase has the scale to stand on its own on a console or as a centerpiece on a dining table. Its wide mouth also lends itself to an arrangement of
