Description

Vintage rosewood display bookcase from the 1960s featuring stunning natural grain, beveled edges, and a black metal base that lends it a light, modern look.It features 2 glass doors opening onto 4 removable shelves, allowing for flexible organization and ample display space. Its shallow depth makes it ideal for showcasing books, art objects, ceramics, glassware, or collectibles. 2 brass keysThe contrast between the richness of the wood and the delicacy of the metal base gives it an elegant aesthetic, in the spirit of modernist and mid-century furniture from the 1960s and 1970s.A piece with character, crafted from rare, precious wood--both functional and decorative--that will easily find its place in a contemporary or vintage interior.Height 130 cmLength 100 cmDepth 20 cmShipping: 35 euros
