Pair Of Paris Porcelain Vases ("or Old Paris")

4 600 EUR

Signature : Georgiana Ellen BROMLEY (1826-1906)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 70cm

Description

Exceptional Pair of Large Ceremonial Vases in Paris PorcelainFrom an English Aristocratic Collection (1864).Period: 19th century, dated 1864 (Napoleon III period)Paris porcelain ("Vieux Paris")Signed and dated on the base in iron red: Georgiana Ellen Bromley 1864A rare and monumental pair of baluster vases in hard-paste porcelain with a white ground, remarkable both for their size and the finesse of their pictorial execution.Each vase features a generously proportioned body topped by a flared neck, accented at the base by an elegant molded gilded ring.The set is enlivened by a sumptuous floral design, entirely hand-painted in naturalistic style, blending hollyhocks, lilacs, wildflowers, and delicate foliage.The neck and pedestal are set against a deep purple-violet background, richly

Dealer

La boutique antique
Antiquités
Mobile : 0609845727

19 boulevard Albert 1er
Antibes 06600

embellished with foliage, arabesques, and fine gold fillets.This pair was a special commission created in 1864 for Lady Georgiana Ellen Bomley (1826-1906), a member of the British aristocracy and wife of Sir Henry Bromley, 4th Baronet of Stoke Hall.In the mid-19th century, English families regularly turned to the expertise of Parisian manufacturers and decorative workshops to adorn their homes with unique, custom-made ceremonial pieces.With their exceptional height of 70 cm, their high-quality craftsmanship, and their documented historical provenance, these vases form a premier pair, ideal for adorning a formal console table or a mantelpiece in either a classic or contemporary interior.