PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Paris, Empire Period--small Bookcase Or Two-door Display Cabinet--flamed Mahogany

1 900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

On display in Paris. Free shipping within France. Contact me for Europe and worldwide shipping.Display cabinet or bookcaseMahogany and mahogany veneer, oak, and softwoodDimensions: H. 150; W. 94; D. 34 (cm.)Paris, early 19th centurySmall bookcase resting on zoomorphic front legs with "claws." It opens with two fully glazed doors and reveals three removable shelves. Two dark wood (amaranth?) inlays, in diamond shapes, on the front. The entire piece is veneered with beautiful flamed mahogany. It is topped with a Belgian granite slab.A practical piece of furniture, easy to place, and very striking.Condition report: comes with its key; no cracks; shows signs of previous restoration.

Dealer

Schoppmann Art and Antiques

Mobilier, objets d'art et décoration

Mobile : 0666629452

838 chemin de la Lauve

Saint-Raphaël 83700