Description

Brass cat sculpture by the Werkstätte Hagenauer in Vienna. The body is rendered in flat relief from a single cut-out brass plate. The head is a disc with triangular ears. The face is suggested by a few added elements: half-closed eyes, a small raised nose, and a smiling mouth made of brass wire. The tail, formed of brass wire coiled into a loop, adds a touch of whimsy to the piece.The object rests on a flat rectangular base. It is signed beneath the base with the circular stamp of the Werkstätte Hagenauer Wien, marked "Hagenauer Wien" and "Made in Austria."Founded in Vienna, the Hagenauer company is renowned for its brass and metal objects, including its animal figures and stylized silhouettes, which embody the spirit of Viennese Art Deco and mid-century design. This piece, with its beautiful graphic simplicity,
