Description

Small devotional object depicting the Virgin and the Infant Jesus, oil on oak, Flemish school, early 17th century.A charming little devotional object; the Infant Jesus rests on a cushion placed on an entablature amid flowers, the Virgin delicately holds a red rose between two fingers--a symbol of Jesus's coming sacrifice--her gaze, full of love, rests upon her Child.Please note the craquelure and a few small areas of loss, consistent with the age of this painting.Additionally, an old label with text about this painting is affixed to the back, though its authenticity could not be verified.Shipping within France: 10EURShipping within Europe: 20EURShipping to any other destination: please request a quote
