Description

A 1970s table lamp made of brass and rattan.The lamp features a round brass base, a slender cylindrical shaft, and a chalice-shaped transition. The semicircular shade is made of concentric rows of rattan rods, also known as "pencil reed." This technique was widely used in the 1960s and 1970s for making furniture and lighting fixtures.The rattan has a honey-colored finish and shows slight localized signs of wear.Dimensions: 61H x 35P x 35L
