Description

We present this elegant Italian walnut desk, dating from the early 19th century.Crafted entirely from solid walnut, this desk embodies the understated elegance and geometric refinement typical of the Directoire period. The design stands out for its clean lines and iconic truncated pyramid legs, which streamline the silhouette, imparting a sense of extreme visual lightness while maintaining extraordinary structural solidity. The space beneath the top houses a spacious and practical central drawer, perfect for storing documents or stationery. The beautiful walnut hue lends a touch of warmth and prestige that only a truly antique piece of furniture can convey. Please note that the back is not finished like the other sides, so this desk is designed to be placed against a wall.You can certainly consider
