Description

A double-tiered coffee table from the 1980s featuring a geometric and modern design. Crafted from veneered wood, it showcases an interesting combination of wood species that create a dynamic visual effect thanks to their varying shades. The polyester finish adds a sheen that enhances the wood's natural colors. In fair condition, the coffee table shows some signs of wear that reflect its use and the passage of time, adding to its vintage charm. Ideal for spaces with a retro or modern style, this piece of furniture is perfect as a focal point in living rooms or home offices.MOTATA0323670
