Description

Elegant Murano art glass centrepiece produced by the Archimede Seguso glassworks during the second half of the 20th century.This refined piece features beautifully crafted transparent glass, enhanced by delicate amber tones and fine gold inclusions that lend luminosity and depth to the composition.Its striking sculptural form is distinguished by flowing, asymmetrical contours, with broad undulating curves and graceful folds that unfold harmoniously in space. The skilful shaping of the glass creates captivating effects of light, reflection and transparency, highlighting the richness of the golden details.This centrepiece reflects the exceptional craftsmanship of Murano glassmakers during the 20th century, combining artistic expression with outstanding technical expertise.Retains its original "Archimede Seguso
