Description

This weekly planner, crafted from pitch pine, features seven drawers, the first of which is shorter in height. The drawer fronts are carved with horizontal grooves, adding rhythm and texture to the piece. Each drawer is adorned with openwork, scroll-shaped drop handles, which add a touch of character to the piece. The side and cross rails are carved with fluting, reinforcing the chest's slender appearance while showcasing meticulous craftsmanship. The piece rests on two spindle legs at the front, giving it elegant stability and a balanced silhouette. This weekly planner is a piece with character, both functional and decorative.*Period: Early 20th centuryExcellent condition following restoration in our workshop.Waxed finish.Shipping available upon request in France and internationallyFor
