Description

DescriptionElegant trumpet-shaped vase in gilded bronze with floral decoration - Art Nouveau period, circa 1900A charming Art Nouveau single-flower vase, consisting of an elegant, delicately flared transparent trumpet-shaped body resting on a gilded metal base with rich naturalistic decoration.The base features remarkable work depicting finely veined foliage, intertwined branches, and small blooms, in the purest spirit of decorative art from the late 19th and early 20th centuries.The base, which is particularly decorative, evokes a cluster of branches and leaves arranged with great freedom of movement, lending this piece a sense of lightness and elegance.Beautiful antique patina, with signs of wear attesting to its authenticity.Date: circa 1900, Art Nouveau
